

Please do whatever necessary to encourage cable and satellite companies to allow a la carte channel selection at reasonable per-channel rates. It is annoying to have to pay for dozens of uninteresting channels merely to get the one I want because the provider chose to package them in that fashion.